Evanisko Realty & Investment, Inc., as exclusive advisor, is pleased to present the opportunity to acquire fee simple interest in 14920 Sherman Way (et. al. addressees) AKA the "Infill Canvas SFV" development site; a 2.44-acre transit-oriented development opportunity with frontage on two streets (Sherman and Kester) steps from the burgeoning intersection of Van Nuys Boulevard and Sherman Way.

Located just +/- 2,700 feet from the planned East San Fernando Valley Light Rail Transit stop (a fully funded transformative Metro rail line project running up and down Van Nuys Boulevard) at the corner of Sherman Way and Van Nuys Boulevard, it's safe to say that density here is justified. The planning department apparently thinks so too with an allotment of various land use values (articulated below) appurtenant to the zoning which allow for more units than one would likely execute - density will therefore be driven not by policy allowances but by desired construction typology and parking ratios (if any). Thus, the site is truly a canvas from which the market will determine their own highest and best interpretations of multifamily execution.

The Seller (a religious institution having owned the property since the 1980's) is price sensitive and will meet the market accordingly with an amenably to terms affording the selected buyer with the ability to gain an at-or-permit-imminent project status with funding stack within a milestone structured escrow period. The inference in this guidance is that the most likely intended transaction be contemplated with the end builder; an experienced developer and builder of multifamily housing.

We look forward to proactive discourse with the market in our effort to select a buyer-partner who will envision a future painted with housing on this San Fernando Valley infill development canvas!

Certain area dynamics and land transaction activity are compelling factors. Coincidentally, the best land sale comparable from which to gain potential valuation bearings is also an "L" shaped land sale dodging a corner within a stone's throw of the subject site. The 86,608 SF site outlined in RED sold for $14,700,000 ($170/PSF) in March of 2023. The purchaser had a letter of determination in hand at the time of close from the City of Los Angeles Planning Department for a 322-unit project utilizing the TOC program. The project includes two levels of parking (one above grade and one below) and five stories of units above parking. The project is under construction.

The subject property is smack dab between the East Valley's major North/South arteries (Sepulveda Blvd. and Van Nuys Blvd.) and walking distance from all the amenities one would expect and desire when contemplating various forms of urban multifamily development in a quickly densifying urban environment; grocery, large hospital, pharmacies, schools, freeway, etc. Market rents and Sherman Circle (developed by IMT in 2011) start at $2,600 for 1-bed apartments. This is without a doubt a location that has transformed and will continue to transform rapidly.

We look forward to proactive market discourse in our effort to select a buyer-partner who will envision a future painted with housing on this San Fernando Valley infill development canvas!
